Baby Boomer:

0 of 0 review helpful Somewhat Deceiving Cover By L V Sage This book was one that you definitely do not want to judge by the cover which I found a bit misleading Although the author does spend some years traveling around Europe in a hippie bus experiencing youth s greatest pursuits namely sex drugs and rock n roll the majority of the book focuses on what happened after those years I very much enjoyed the From the beaches of Formentera to prison in Afghanistan to seeking Nirvana in India and back Schultz shares in a delightful writing style anecdotes of pleasure humor suspense fear and reflection that ultimately transformed him into a well respected orthopaedic surgeon In Autobiography of a Baby Boomer you ll follow the journey of a postmodernist baby boomer from Father Knows Best middle class Fair Lawn New Jersey to the hippy trail through Europe North Africa th Midwest Book With humor and poignancy Autobiography of a Baby Boomer is insightful and a very much recommended addition to contemporary memoir collections Midwest Book About the Author Robert Schultz although a
